

FIRST AID ASSESSOR & IQA CPD TRAINING DAY

Guidance from the Health and Safety Executive and Skills for Health states that as of 1st October 2015 all those who assess or quality assure first aid qualifications must hold a formal qualification.

However, regulated first aid qualifications follow the Skills for Health First Aid Assessment Principles, which provide an option for those who don't hold formal assessing or internal quality assurance qualifications to attend a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) training day instead.

Here at Quasafe Awards we are dedicated to providing the best possible support for our Centres, and as such we have introduced a 1 day CPD event that covers all of the information needed to successfully assess and quality assure regulated first aid qualifications.

Delegates who successfully complete this CPD training day will receive a certificate that is accepted by all Awarding Organisations, making it the ideal solution for those who only assess or quality assure first aid qualifications and a great alternative to completing a longer formal qualification.

“An Interesting and Informative day”

“Incredibly useful, I feel more empowered as a Centre.”

What's more, all attendees will receive 7 CPD points for their attendance and will benefit from the opportunity to network with Quasafe Awards experts as well as other training organisations.

What's covered?

Our 1 day CPD events are highly interactive and delegates are “off their seats” assessing and quality assuring qualifications in a simulated learning environment. The sessions follow an agreed syllabus and also give specific details about Quasafe Awards qualifications.
